BUSINESS REPORT

(From January 1, 2021 to December 31, 2021)

1. Overview of the Shimano Group

(1) Review of Operations and Results

During fiscal year 2021, while restrictions on activities were eased along with the progress of the COVID-19 vaccinations around the world, with signs of changes starting to appear in people's lifestyles in the post-COVID-19 society, the pace of economic recovery varied from region to region due to tightening of global logistics, semiconductor shortages, sharp rises in raw material and energy prices, as well as uncertainties caused by the infection spread of new variants and other factors.

In Europe, while the normalization of economies progressed, with steady economic expansion led by personal consumption, slow supply of raw materials and soaring energy prices dampened consumer sentiment and purchasing activities.

In the U.S., although economic activities are on track for recovery, led by personal consumption backed by a rebound from suppressed consumption in the COVID-19 pandemic as well as economic measures, the infection spread of new variants weighed on consumer sentiment.

In Japan, signs of economic recovery began to appear amid repeated restrictions on activities and easing of them by COVID-19 measures, but the pace of recovery in personal consumption was slow.

In this environment, supply chains were disrupted, and some of the Shimano Group's factories experienced temporary shutdown due to lockdown. However, interest in and demand for bicycles and fishing continued to be high, and the Shimano Group increased production capacity at the factories in Japan and overseas. As a result, for fiscal year 2021, net sales increased 44.6% from the previous year to 546,515 million yen. Operating income increased 79.3% to 148,287 million yen, ordinary income increased 87.3% to 152,562 million yen, and net income attributable to owners of parent increased 82.7% to 115,937 million yen.

Reportable Segment Overview

Bicycle Components

Demand for mid to high-end bicycles remained at high levels due to the global cycling boom, triggered by the spread of COVID-19, but some markets began to settle down in the second half of fiscal year 2021.

In the European market, high demand for bicycles and bicycle-related products continued, backed by governments' policies to promote bicycles in response to growing environmental awareness. Market inventories of completed bicycles remained at low levels despite signs of improvement.

In the North American market, while demand for bicycles continued to be high, market inventories, centering around entry-class bicycles, began to approach appropriate levels.

In the Asian and South and Central American markets, the cycling boom showed signs of cooling off in the second half of fiscal year 2021, and market inventories of mainstay entry-class bicycles reached appropriate levels.

In the Japanese market, despite inventory shortages of new high-end road bikes and entry-class road bikes with high demand, retail sales of community bicycles stagnated, resulting in market inventories slightly higher than appropriate levels.

Under these market conditions, while the Shimano Group further increased production, order-taking was brisk for a wide range of products, including the two new high-end models of road bikes, DURA-ACE and ULTEGRA, and sport E-BIKE components, SHIMANO STEPS series.

As a result, net sales from this segment increased 49.0% from the previous year to 443,678 million yen, and operating income increased 82.7% to 125,146 million yen.

Fishing Tackle

Fishing was welcomed by a wide range of users as an activity that could avoid people crowding, and the fishing tackle market thrived and maintained high demand around the world.

In the Japanese market, although there were signs of a lull in the fishing boom, sales remained robust, led by salt lure-related products, as the situation of COVID-19 started to settle down, and consumer appetite increased, in addition to the good weather.

Overseas, in the North American market, demand remained high with firm sales, backed by stable weather and buoyant markets.

In the European market, while demand started to cool off in some regions, sales remained solid as a result of widespread use of vaccinations and progress in online sales.

In the Asian market, sales remained favorable due to strong demand for high price range products, especially in the Chinese market where the impact of COVID-19 was small. In the Australian market, sales remained favorable, supported by strong demand, despite some regions being put under lockdown.

Under these market conditions, spinning reels BB-X TECHNIUM, ULTEGRA, and TWIN POWER SW, bait reels ANTARES DC and SLX MGL, and carp rods Tribal TX series were well-received in the market.

As a result, net sales from this segment increased 28.1% from the previous year to 102,388 million yen, and operating income increased 62.1% to 23,120 million yen.

Others

Net sales from this segment increased 25.7% from the previous year to 447 million yen and operating income of 20 million yen was recorded, following an operating loss of 57 million yen for the previous year.

(4) Issues to be Addressed

There is concern that the global economy will be weighed down by the infection spread of new, highly infectious variants, and that shortages of semiconductors and electronic components, rising prices of raw materials, tight logistics, a labor shortage, and other problems may further worsen. However, interest in outdoor leisure activities that can avoid people crowding is expected to continue.

In Europe, while there exists concern about new variants, it is forecast that the recovery trend in personal consumption will continue, and the economy will remain on the upswing, as a result of widespread use of vaccinations and improvement in supply restrictions.

In the U.S., while the normalization of economic activities progresses, monetary policy developments and the outcome of the midterm elections may influence the economy.

In China, there is concern that the economy will slow down sharply due to worsening debt problems at certain companies, among other factors. The impact of the slowdown will spread to the world economy and drag down the economy.

In Japan, efforts to carefully strike a balance between the prevention of infection spread and economic revitalization will continue, and the pace of economic recovery is expected to remain modest.

In these circumstances, the Company emphasizes not only striving to develop and manufacture "captivating products" that bring sensations to many people as a "development-oriented digital manufacturing company" of Japan origin, while closely monitoring favorable trends in demand for bicycles and fishing tackle, but also moving forward step by step as a "value creating company" that continues to create a shared value between corporations and society. We will endeavor to further enhance management efficiency and strive for sustainable corporate growth by pursuing the creation of new cycling and fishing culture.

We request your continuing support in our endeavors.

(4) Total Remuneration, etc. of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

1) Policy for determining the content of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

The annual remuneration for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members is decided within the maximum total remuneration amounts for all Directors and all Audit & Supervisory Board Members, respectively, established by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Regarding the amount of annual remuneration for each Director, the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee whose members include Outside Directors examines whether the remuneration system for Directors and the level of remuneration are functioning as incentives aligned with sustainable development, and the Board of Directors resolves the determination of the amount of remuneration, with its scope of discretion being the establishment of appropriate indicators on financial performance, based on the recommendation from the said Committee.

The amount of annual remuneration for each Audit & Supervisory Board Member is decided through discussion by the Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

Remuneration of Directors (excluding Outside Directors) consists of monthly remuneration and bonuses. Monthly remuneration is based on the role and the scope of responsibilities corresponding to each position, while bonuses are paid to individual Directors, based on their level of achievement in the actual results against the target performance, for which planned net sales and operating income for the fiscal year under review are set forth as performance indicator with an aim to enhance motivation for improving the Company's growth and profitability, as well as growth compared with previous fiscal years. The composition ratio of remuneration in a case where standard financial performance is achieved is approximately 60:40 of fixed remuneration to performance-linked remuneration. Directors (excluding foreign Directors) engaged in business execution contribute a certain amount or more from their monthly remuneration to purchase shares of the Company through the Directors' shareholding association, from the viewpoint of reflecting mediumto long-term financial performance in their remuneration. The shares purchased shall be held while the Directors remain in office.

Remuneration for Outside Directors shall not be linked with financial performance, from the viewpoint of securing their high independence and only monthly remuneration shall be paid to them.

The above policy was resolved by the Board of Directors following the recommendations of the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee.

As the content of remuneration, etc. for individual Directors was determined following multifaceted consideration by the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, including consideration of the consistency of the draft proposal with the determination policy, the Board of Directors respects the committee's recommendations and believes that the content is in line with the determination policy.

 Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on remuneration, etc. for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

With regard to the remuneration, etc. for the Company's Directors, it was resolved at the 112th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on March 26, 2019 (16 Directors (including 2 Outside Directors) subject to the resolution) that the maximum total amount of remuneration for Directors shall be 720 million yen a year (including 60 million yen for Outside Directors), provided, however, that such amount shall not include remuneration for employment.

6. Basic Policy on the Control of the Company

(1) Details of the Basic Policy

The Company believes that it is necessary that the persons who control decisions on the Company's financial and business policies fully understand the Company's financial and business details and the sources of the Company's corporate value and make possible the continuous and sustained preservation and enhancement of the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders.

The Company will not repudiate even a large-scale purchase of the Company's shares, provided the purchase contributes to the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders.

However, a number of large-scale share purchases would have little value to the corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders. For instance, some large-scale share purchases, in light of their purposes, would clearly impair the corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders, pose a risk of effectively compelling shareholders to sell their shares, fail to provide the Board of Directors or shareholders of the targeted company with sufficient time or information to consider the details of the large-scale share purchase or for the Board of Directors of the targeted company to make an alternative proposal, or require the targeted company to discuss and negotiate with the purchaser to obtain more favorable terms than those offered by the purchaser.

In particular, the sources of the Shimano Group's corporate value include 1) worldwide sales bases and networks that make possible the rapid detection of customer needs; 2) highly creative planning and development capabilities and technological capabilities that satisfy customer needs; 3) a cost-competitive production structure that takes advantage of the strengths of the countries where the manufacturing bases are located and supply capacity to meet worldwide demand; 4) a global service structure; and 5) harmonious business operation among the Shimano Group companies. The factors that form the foundation of these strengths include (i) firm relationships of trust with customers, business partners, employees, and other stakeholders; (ii) the technical development capabilities and expertise of individual employees; and (iii) a corporate culture that enables individual employees to fully demonstrate those capabilities. If a person conducting a large-scale purchase of the Company's shares failed to understand not only the details of the Company's finances and business, but also these sources of the Company's corporate value, and failed to preserve and enhance them in the medium term and long term, the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders would be impaired. Also, if the Company receives a proposal for a large-scale purchase of shares from an outsider, to enable the shareholders to make the optimal choice it will be necessary for the Company to judge the affects the purchase will have on the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders after appropriately ascertaining the tangible and intangible elements that constitute the Company's corporate value and information about the purchaser and share purchase. Any large-scale purchase forcibly conducted while such information remained undisclosed would pose a risk of impairment to the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders.

The Company believes that a person conducting a large-scale purchase of shares that does not contribute to the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders would be inappropriate as a person to control decisions on the Company's financial and business policies and that it is necessary to secure the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders by adopting necessary and appropriate measures to counter a large-scale purchase by such a person.

(2) Outline of the Measures for the Realization of the Basic Policy

(A) Special Measures to Contribute to the Realization of the Basic Policy

(i) Measures for the Enhancement of Corporate Value

To maintain and further strengthen the above-mentioned sources of corporate value, the Company believes that it must continue to supply services and products that are trusted by and provide satisfaction to customers and in the coming years engage in the development and manufacture of products that respond to heightened customer interest in the environment, health, and other matters. Also, demand for bicycle components and fishing equipment, the Company's mainstay products, is increasing in emerging markets, such as China and South America. The Company intends to implement various measures so as to earn the confidence of customers also in these emerging markets. Against that backdrop, the Company will realize medium-term to long-term enhancement of corporate value by having as its basic policies 1) the reinforcement of core competences and 2) the creation of a cycling culture and fishing culture and brand reinforcement. (ii) Reinforcement of Corporate Governance and Shareholder Returns

At the Company, supervision of the Directors' execution of duties is performed by means of 3 Independent Outside Directors and an Audit & Supervisory Board that includes 2 Independent Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members. Also, the Company has established an internal audit organization. It periodically audits the state of compliance and risk management and is engaged in the development and implementation of global internal control systems.

The Company regards shareholder returns as an important management priority and has a basic policy of maintaining and continuing stable dividends and allocating profits in accordance with the development of business performance. The Company has continued to pay stable dividends since it listed its shares in 1972 and, furthermore, has increased dividends in line with improvement in business performance. The Company also has been actively conducting share repurchases.

Furthermore, with regard to activities to discharge social responsibility, the Shimano Group has long actively engaged in cultural activities, participated in volunteer activities, and sponsored events in communities where it has a presence. These activities build relationships of trust with business partners, area residents, and other stakeholders.

(B) Outline of the Measures to Prevent Decisions on the Company's Financial and Business Policies from Being Controlled by Persons Viewed as Inappropriate under the Basic Policy

In the event of a large-scale purchase of the Company's shares, the Company will make appropriate responses, as necessary, including making efforts for vigorous gathering of information and appropriate disclosure, in order to secure and enhance the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders.

(3) The Decisions of the Company's Board of Directors Concerning Specific Measures and the Reasons Thereof Special Measures to Contribute to the Realization of the Basic Policy

The measures for the enhancement of corporate value and measures for the reinforcement of corporate governance described in the above (2) (A) have been formulated as specific measures for the continuous and sustained preservation and enhancement of the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders and indeed contribute to realization of the Basic Policy. Accordingly, these measures are in line with the basic policy and in accordance with the common interests of the Company's shareholders and are not for the purpose of maintaining the position of the Company's corporate officers.

    - Leased assets related to finance lease transactions without ownership transfer
      - Depreciation of leased assets related to finance lease transactions without ownership transfer is principally computed by the straightline method based on the period of the leasing contract as the useful lives and with no residual value.
    - Right-of-use assets
    - Depreciation of right-of-use assets is computed by the straight-line method based on the useful lives of right-of-use assets or the period of the leasing contract, whichever is shorter.
  - Intangible assets
    - Intangible assets are amortized principally by the straight-line method. Amortization of software for internal use is computed by the straight-line method over an estimated useful life (principally 5 years).
- (c) Provision for principal allowances and reserves
  - Allowance for doubtful accounts
    - The allowance for doubtful accounts is provided in an amount sufficient to cover possible losses on collection. Such amount is computed by applying bad debt loss ratios based on past experience for general receivables and by individually reviewing collectability for specific doubtful accounts.
  - Accrued employee bonuses
  - Accrued employee bonuses are provided in an amount corresponding to the fiscal year based on the projected amount sufficient to meet future payments of bonuses to employees.
  - Accrued officer bonuses
  - Accrued officer bonuses are provided in an amount corresponding to the fiscal year based on the projected amount sufficient to meet future payments of bonuses to officers.
- (d) Translation of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies into yen

Monetary assets and liabilities of the Company denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Japanese yen at applicable current exchange rates at the balance sheet date. However, receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies covered by forward exchange contracts are translated at the contracted rates. Differences arising from translation are charged or credited to income. Assets and liabilities of consolidated overseas subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at the rate of exchange at the balance sheet date, and revenue and expense accounts are translated into Japanese yen at the average rates over the fiscal year. Differences arising from translation are included in foreign currency translation adjustments and non-controlling interest in net assets.

(e) Accounting for hedges

Method of hedge accounting

With respect to receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies covered by forward exchange contracts, appropriation accounting is applied.

Hedging instrument and risk hedged

Foreign exchange forward contracts serve as hedges against risk of fluctuation in currency exchange rates concerning foreign currencydenominated assets and liabilities and for scheduled foreign currency-denominated transactions.

Hedging policy

Hedging transactions are only adopted in order to appropriately control and reduce risks associated with export and import.

Assessing the effectiveness of a hedge

Hedge accounting is applied in accordance with the "Practical Guidelines Concerning Accounting for Financial Instruments" (The Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants).

(f) Method and period of amortization of goodwill

Goodwill is amortized by the straight-line method over a reasonable number of years within 20 years, based on judgment of individual items. Goodwill whose amount is immaterial is fully amortized as incurred.

(g) Other significant accounting policies for preparation of consolidated financial statements

i) Accounting for consumption taxes

All amounts stated are exclusive of consumption and local taxes.

ii) Accounting for employee retirement benefits

The liability, including both the unfunded lump-sum benefit and the funded pension plan, is calculated as the difference between the expected and discounted future retirement and Shimano corporate pension payments, and the assets under the pension plan to meet such future payments. All the past service costs and actuarial gains and losses are expensed in the fiscal year in which they occur.

In calculating retirement benefit obligation, the benefit formula basis is applied to allocate projected retirement benefits to the periods until the end of the current fiscal year.

Certain consolidated subsidiaries use the simplified method whereby the amount that would be required to be paid if all their eligible employees voluntarily terminated their employment as of the balance sheet date is treated as retirement benefit obligation for the calculation of net defined benefit liability and retirement benefit cost.

6. Notes relating to financial instruments

(1) Policies on financial instruments

The Shimano Group restricts its fund management to deposits with financial institutions with high credit standing and raises funds mainly by means of bank loans.

The Shimano Group manages customer credit risk from notes and accounts receivable-trade on the basis of internal credit control guidelines.

Investment securities are primarily stocks and the Shimano Group monitors fair value of listed stocks on a quarterly basis. The Shimano Group uses derivatives for the purpose of hedging risks in accordance with the internal guidelines.

(2) Fair values of financial instruments

Carrying amounts, fair values and the differences between carrying amounts and fair values as of December 31, 2021, are as follows:

			(Millions of yen)
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Difference

Notes:

1. Basis of determining the fair value of financial instruments and matters relating to securities and derivative transactions Assets

(1) Cash and time deposits and (2) Notes and accounts receivable-trade

The carrying amount of these instruments approximates fair value because of their short-term maturities.

(3) Investment securities

The fair values of stocks are stated using quoted market prices.

Liabilities

(1) Accounts payable-trade, (2) Short-term loans payable, and (3) Income taxes payable

The carrying amount of these instruments approximates fair value because of their short-term maturities.

The fair values of long-term loans payable are estimated based on their present values by applying discounted cash flow analysis using rates currently available for similar types of borrowings with similar terms and original maturities.

Derivatives

Not applicable because no derivative transactions existed at the end of fiscal year 2021.

2. Unlisted stocks (2,764 million yen on the consolidated balance sheet) are not included in "(3) Investment securities" as it is deemed extremely difficult to determine their fair value because quoted market prices are unavailable and it is impossible to estimate future cash flows.
